

Center for International Studies Distinguished Diplomat Program

Foreign Policy Town Hall Meeting

The Foreign Policy Alliance in collaboration with the Center for International Studies
Distinguished Diplomat Program

Panelists:

Amb. Christopher Ashby (ret.)

Mr. Allen Vogel, FPA Board Member

Mr. Joe Marcinkowski, FPA Board member

Prof. Richard Sindelar, Center for International Studies

Moderator:

Ms. Patricia Gras, Journalist

Here in the middle of Congressional primaries and election season, the University of St. Thomas sits within a mile of four different Congressional Districts. This Town Hall meeting will provide an opportunity for voters and perhaps even a few candidates to listen to a range of viewpoints on Foreign Policy issues.

A panel of foreign policy experts, practitioners, and citizen activists representing a wide range of viewpoints will discuss and take questions and comments from the public covering all manner of Foreign Policy challenges which face our country today.

Panelists and attendees will have an opportunity to discuss America's Foreign Policy with regard to Europe, Russia, China, North Korea, and the Middle-East.

Organizations and persons wishing to sponsor this event, please contact Prof. Sindelar at sindelr@stthom.edu or 713-525-3819.

Wednesday, April 4, 2018

7:00 PM

University of St. Thomas

Jones Hall

3910 Yoakum, Houston, TX 77006

Event is free to the public. Parking is $5 in Moran Garage located at the corner of Graustark and West Alabama